

SPECIAL OFFER

Save 50% when you use the Discount Code provided.

PRIORITY CODE

15999

DISCOUNT CODE

P3054171

LORMAN[®]

Ethical Considerations for In-House Counsel

November 16, 2022 • 1:00 pm - 2:05 pm ET

Agenda

Representing the Corporate Client

Attorney Client Privilege and Client Confidential Information

Conducting Internal Investigations: Corporate Misconduct, Whistle-Blowers

Professional Responsibility of In-House Counsel Acting in Multiple Roles

Reporting Up the Ladder

Ethics Issues and Best Practices for Working Remotely

Learn best practices and how to identify and analyze relevant ethical obligations.

The range of ethical issues that can arise for in-house corporate counsel continues to evolve with the growing complexity and regulation of business. In-house corporate counsel is increasingly being called upon to manage the company's conduct, governance, and compliance in ways that do not always fall clearly within the rules of professional responsibility. Business and commercial lawyers who function as outside counsel to corporations will also find this program useful when dealing with in-house counsel.

Faculty

Miriam A. Ross, Esq.

- Corporate attorney Miriam Ross & Associates, LLC
- Focuses on ethics and compliance and a business advocate with extensive experience in business and corporate law
- Licensed to practice law in the states of Ohio, Michigan, and Rhode Island and is admitted to the U.S. District Court Rhode Island
- Decades of in-house counsel experience working for Fortune 100 companies and leading their ethics and compliance departments
- An adjunct law professor at Roger Williams University School of Law teaching regulatory compliance, transactional law, and election law
- Former chair of the Continuing Legal Education of the Rhode Island Bar Association
- Former co-chair of the Rhode Island Small Business Economic Summit sponsored by the U.S. Small Business Administration
- On the board and vice president of the Rhode Island Israel Collaborative, a nonprofit organization that fosters trade and business and academic exchange between Rhode Island and Israel
- J.D. degree, Cleveland State University-Marshall College of Law; B.A. degree, University of Michigan (in Ann Arbor)

Continuing Education Credit

- CLE/Ethics*
- NALA 1.00/Ethics 1.00

*For detailed credit information, visit www.lorman.com/ID410052 or call 866-352-9540.

NY CLE: Both established and newly admitted attorneys may obtain credit for this program.

Lorman Business Center, LLC has a financial hardship policy for CLE. Please visit <https://www.lorman.com/contact/financial-hardship/> for further details or to apply.

General Information: Includes free downloadable manual with attendance. This live webinar may be recorded by Lorman Education. If you need special accommodations, please contact us two weeks in advance of the program. Lorman Education Services is not approved to offer self-study CPE credit for accountants; therefore, no CPE will be given for this program if ordered as a self-study package. ©2022 Lorman Education Services. All rights reserved. Cancellations: If you wish to cancel any unviewed product, live webinar or seminar, cancellations must be received within seventy-two (72) hours of your purchase to receive a full refund. For paid purchases of a single live webinar or seminar, you may transfer your registration to an alternate event or send a substitute attendee to the event in your place. Notice of a transfer or substitution must be provided to Lorman in advance of the originally purchased event. If you cannot attend your live webinar or seminar, you may substitute your registration amount for a recording, if available, at no additional charge.

